Pérez-Llorca

Alberto Bustamante

Contact
alberto.bustamante@perezllorca.com
Paseo de la Castellana, 259A
28046 Madrid

Practices and Sectors

- Finance

Profile

Alberto has more than 16 years of experience in M&A, Corporate Finance, and Private Equity and Fund Formation. His practice is focused on advising national and international clients, including banks and companies (both private and public) regarding all kind of transactions such as bank loans, company acquisitions, private equity investments and other related matters, as well as the preparation and negotiation of the respective contracts.

Studies:

- Master of Laws (LL.M.) with honors, Northwestern University, School of Law, Chicago, Illinois
- Certificate in Business Administration, Kellogg School of Management, Northwestern University, Illinois
- Law degree (J.D. equivalent) with honors, Universidad Iberoamericana, Mexico City

His working languages are Spanish, English and French.

Experience

Alberto has extensive experience providing legal and business advice to multinational and Mexican companies in all kinds of domestic and cross-border transactions.

Among his most relevant matters in the firm are his representation of Gentera in the acquisition of 36.8% of Concrédito, comprised of an investment of more than MXN $2.5 billion and its conversion as well as an additional share acquisition, in order for Gentera to reach a 51%. Alberto also represented Bain Capital in their MXN $1.1 billion senior facility agreement for the acquisition of the Atento Group from Telefonica; he also advised Bancomext in a USD $53 million senior secured and VAT financing for the development of hotel project in Mexico.

His international experience includes working as foreign associate at Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett LLP in New York between 2013 and 2014.

Academic and Publishing collaborations

- Legal and tax incentives: competition for foreign investment in Mexico, Chile and Peru, published by LexLatin

Recognition

- Best Lawyers: Corporate and Mergers and Acquisitions Law (Since 2022)