Pérez-Llorca

María Alejandra Cardona Camacho

Contact
maria.cardona@perezllorca.com
T: +57 601 3192900 Ext. 256
Calle 67, 7-35
110231 Bogotá

Profile

María Alejandra has over 10 years of professional experience and is part of the Corporate practice. She is an expert in advising national and international companies and their shareholders on corporate law, corporate governance, and M&A transactions.

Studies:

- LL.M., University of London
- Postgraduate Degree in Corporate Law, Pontificia Universidad Javieriana
- Law, Universidad de los Andes

She speaks Spanish and English.

Experience

María Alejandra Cardona has experience in the corporate field and in private legal practice. Between 2023 and 2026, she served as Corporate Legal Coordinator at Alquería, where she was involved in managing legal matters related to the company's operations. Previously, she worked as an independent lawyer between 2020 and 2023, providing legal advice on various corporate matters. She began her professional career in private practice as an associate at an international law firm with a presence in Colombia, where she worked between 2019 and 2020, gaining experience in providing legal support to companies on corporate and regulatory matters.

Professional Organisations

- International Bar Association (IBA).