Practices and Sectors

- Competition
- Intellectual Property
- Sports
- Technology, Communications & Data Protection

Profile

Since beginning his professional career in 1993, Mauricio has primarily focused on advising Colombian and international companies in defining strategies for the protection and management of intellectual property portfolios. He also specializes in the development and structuring of innovation strategies, providing counsel on the exploitation of intellectual property, and negotiating contracts for the exploitation of intellectual property through licensing, franchising, or other types of agreements.

His practice in competition law centers on advising companies regarding their commercial activities and the potential implications from a competition perspective, including restrictive competition practices, unfair competition, consumer protection, and oversight of corporate mergers and acquisitions.

He is known for a comprehensive approach to regulation in high-profile transactions.

Studies:

- Master's in Public Administration, Deutsche Hochschule für Verwaltungswissenschaften Speyer, Germany.
- Specialization in Commercial Law, Universidad de los Andes, Bogotá.
- Law Degree, Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, Bogotá.

He speaks Spanish, English and German.

Experience

Mauricio has built a leading practice in competition law, international trade, intellectual property, and technology, advising multinational companies on high-impact transactions. He has represented

Partners Telecom - WOM in the radio spectrum auction, advised Globant on its acquisition of Grupo Assa, and led competition matters for companies such as Tetra Pak, GSK, Kimberly-Clark, Procafecol, and Bavaria. Together with his team, he has designed and implemented sophisticated merger control strategies to secure clearance before Colombia's Antitrust Authority (SIC) in high-stakes deals such as JetBlue's acquisition of Spirit, Grupo Gilinski's takeover of Grupo Nutresa, and Inchcape's acquisition of Dero.

His experience also includes advising on AT&T's acquisition of Time Warner, the sale of ExxonMobil subsidiaries to Copec/Terpel, and Unilever's acquisition of brands from Quala. He has also provided intellectual property counsel to major consumer goods companies such as Grupo Nutresa and Alicorp. He is known for a comprehensive approach to regulation in high-profile transactions.
