Profile

Ricardo is an attorney specializing in dispute resolution, with a particular focus on administrative and constitutional litigation. Over the course of his four-year career, he has advised companies in the infrastructure, power generation, and telecommunications sectors, among others.

Studies:

- Specialization in Amparo Law, Universidad Panamericana, Mexico City
- Law degree (J.D. equivalent), Universidad Panamericana, Mexico City

His working languages are Spanish and English.

Experience

Ricardo has experience in dispute resolution, with a special emphasis on administrative and constitutional litigation, complemented by practice in civil and commercial litigation, arbitration, and regulatory compliance regarding anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing.

Throughout his career, he has represented clients from various sectors in Amparo proceedings and administrative litigation before the Supreme Court of Justice of the Nation, the Federal Judiciary, the Federal Court of Administrative Justice, and specialized courts in the areas of economic competition, broadcasting, and telecommunications.

Similarly, he has participated in arbitration proceedings, civil and commercial litigation, as well as in the negotiation of settlements to resolve contentious proceedings, which provides him with a comprehensive perspective on dispute resolution.

His litigation practice is complemented by experience in due diligence processes related to the prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing.
