Profile

Pablo is a transactional associate with over four years of experience. His practice focuses on representing both domestic and international companies, primarily in mergers and acquisitions transactions, infrastructure and project financing, private equity, as well as capital and debt markets.

Studies:

- Law degree (J.D. equivalent), Universidad Iberoamericana, Mexico City

His working languages are Spanish and English.

Experience

He joined the firm as a law clerk over four years ago, and since then has focused his practice on representing companies in mergers and acquisitions transactions, financings, and capital issuances, as well as project financing in the energy sector, both domestically and in cross-border operations.

His experience includes drafting and reviewing corporate documents, conducting legal audits, handling regularizations, and negotiating complex contracts. Since the start of his career, he has acquired solid expertise in audit processes and corporate advisory, providing counsel to clients across various industries.
