Profile

Grecia has more than 3 years of experience in antitrust matters, mainly in the representation of domestic and foreign clients before the Mexican antitrust authorities Mexican Antitrust Authority and the Federal Telecommunications Institute.

Studies:

- Law degree (J.D. equivalent), Universidad Anáhuac México, Mexico City

Her working languages are Spanish and English.

Experience

Grecia's experience includes notification notice proceedings, investigations for cartel behavior and abuse of dominance, requests for leniency program and exemption and fine reduction procedures, as well as proceedings for existence of barriers to competition and/or essential inputs in various sectors and industries, including automotive, hospitality, pharmaceuticals, energy, public procurement of medical supplies, financial services, transportation, among others.

Prior joining the firm, Grecia worked in a leading Mexican law firm, so she also has two years of experience in the areas of civil, commercial and administrative litigation, which complements her vision in antitrust matters.
