Pérez-Llorca

Manuel Gálvez Villaseñor

Contact
jesus.galvez@perezllorca.com
Montes Urales 632, Lomas de Chapultepec, Miguel Hidalgo
11000 Ciudad de México

Profile

Jesús Manuel is an associate and member of the litigation practice group since 2009. He has over 16 years of experience advising clients on sophisticated administrative and commercial litigation matters as well as for civil, commercial, energy, data protection, and real estate controversies.

Studies:

- Postgraduate Degree in Civil Law, Escuela Libre de Derecho, Mexico City
- Seminar and Diploma in Constitutional Law and Controversies, Centro Universitario México División Estudios Superiores (CUMDES), Mexico City
- Law degree (J.D. equivalent), Centro Universitario México División Estudios Superiores (CUMDES), Mexico City

His working languages are Spanish and English.

Experience

Jesus Manuel's practice includes judicial reviews and other administrative remedies before the Mexican Federal Government arising out from public tenders. His work also includes administrative sanctioning procedures, nullity trials and constitutional relief (amparo) proceedings derived from resolutions issued by PROFECO – Mexico's Federal Consumer Protection Agency, as well as for legal opinions across multiple matters involving analysis of civil and commercial agreements, among others.

Manuel has represented some of the most important technology companies in commercial and civil lawsuits (including moral damages), as well as administrative proceedings, where he obtained several important resolutions on behalf of his clients allowing them to continue the operation of their businesses. Similarly, his work includes obtaining relevant resolutions in civil and administrative matters before Mexico's Supreme Court of Justice.