Profile

Michelle has been an associate since 2023. With more than 7 years of consolidated experience in antitrust matters, Michelle stands out as a versatile professional with a solid track record in both the public and private sectors. She began her career in two prominent law firms and, later, in the Investigative Authority of the Federal Economic Competition Commission. Michelle played a crucial role in investigations and trial proceedings that spanned diverse sectors, such as pharmaceuticals, transportation, hydrocarbons and petroleum.

Studies:

- Law degree (J.D. equivalent), Universidad Panamericana, Mexico City

Her working languages are Spanish and English.

Experience

Specialized in providing specific legal advice on monopolistic practices and special procedures, Michelle brings a unique perspective that covers both the regulatory and litigation spheres. Likewise, she has actively participated in advising on procedures for concentrations of operations both nationally and transnationally.

In addition to her experience in antitrust investigations, she has developed antitrust compliance programs, demonstrating her commitment to business ethics and the promotion of fair business practices.

Academic and Publishing Collaborations

- Adjunct professor of the Economic Competition Chair at the Faculty of Law of the Universidad Panamericana.
