

Pérez-Llorca

Daniela Montaña Martínez

Contact

daniela.montano@perezllorca.com

Montes Urales 632, Lomas de Chapultepec, Miguel Hidalgo
11000 Ciudad de México

Profile

Daniela has over 10 years of experience in arbitration before the ICC and the CAM, as well as in litigation and federal and local courts.

Studies:

- Diploma in Workplace Inclusion and Diversity, Government of the State of Querétaro, Querétaro.
- Diploma in Artificial Intelligence for Legal Professionals, TEP Institute of Science and Technology, Madrid.
- Expert in Graphology and Graphology, Mexican College of Graphology and Forensics, Mexico.
- Diploma in Amparo (Constitutional Remedies), Supreme Court of Justice, Mexico.
- Diploma in Human Rights Defense Mechanisms, Supreme Court of Justice, Mexico.
- Diploma in Human Rights of Persons with Disabilities, Inter-American Institute on Disability and Inclusive Development, Costa Rica.
- Diploma in Public Policy and Gender Perspective, Latin American Faculty of Social Sciences (FLACSO), Mexico City.
- Master's degree in human Rights, Humanitarian Law, and Operational Law, Antonio de Nebrija University, Madrid.
- Master's degree in human Rights and Democracy, Latin American Faculty of Social Sciences (FLACSO), Mexico City.
- Law degree (J.D. equivalent) with the highest honors (summa cum laude), Universidad La Salle, Mexico City

Her working languages are Spanish and English.

Experience

Daniela has experience in arbitration and litigation. Her practice is a mix of commercial litigation and domestic and international arbitration before federal and local Courts, Centro de Arbitraje Mexicano and the International Chamber of Commerce for major national and international companies in different sectors including technology, media, entertainment, energy and retail.

Her experience also includes the representation of numerous companies on insolvency matters related to business reorganization and bankruptcy cases.

Daniela successfully advised one of the largest retail companies in their commercial matters and also represented the most popular streaming company with their constitutional remedies (amparo) with an aggregated value of US $250 million.

She is also active in the pro bono practice. Daniela's experience includes civil trials before federal Mexican courts and American courts.

Academic and Publishing collaborations

- Professor at La Salle University Mexico (Condesa campus) of Constitutional Law, Fundamental Rights and Commercial Procedural Law.

Professional Organisations

- Abogadas MX
- Philanthropy Council, La Salle University
- Mexican Bar Association (Barra Mexicana, Colegio de Abogados, A.C.)

Recognition

- Best lawyers, Arbitration and mediation.
- Chambers and Partners, Associate to watch.