- Specialization Program in International and Investment Arbitration, Universidad del Pacífico (2021).
- Lawyer, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (2014).

His working languages are Spanish and English.

Experience

He specializes in the design of dispute resolution strategies and the representation of clients in investment arbitration, international commercial arbitration, and domestic arbitration. He has been involved in high-complexity disputes related to infrastructure, energy, construction, and corporate matters, including proceedings conducted under the rules of leading international arbitral institutions.

He also has extensive experience in the resolution of civil, commercial, and administrative disputes before all levels of the judiciary, with particular emphasis on complex litigation, as well as annulment and enforcement proceedings involving arbitral awards.

His practice further includes representing clients before Dispute Boards and specialized technical experts, as well as providing strategic counsel in the management of disputes during pre-arbitral and pre-litigation stages, successfully securing favorable outcomes for his clients.

Academic and Publishing Collaborations

He has served as a teaching assistant for the courses Theory of Conflict, General Theory of Process, and Civil Procedural Law at the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú.
