Profile

José Miguel Puiggros has over 25 years of experience advising on some of the most significant financing transactions in the Peruvian market. His practice focuses on structured finance, project finance, acquisition finance, public and private securities offerings—with particular emphasis on project bond issuances—and asset securitization transactions.

Studies:

- Foreign Lawyer Program Internship, Holland & Knight LLP, Washington, D.C. (2007).
- Master of Laws (LL.M.) and Business Certificate, Northwestern University (2004).
- Lawyer, Universidad de Lima (2001).

He speaks Spanish and English.

Experience

José Miguel has extensive experience in structuring sophisticated financing transactions at both the local and international levels. He has been involved in structured finance, project finance, acquisition finance, and capital markets transactions, bringing a comprehensive perspective that combines technical expertise, commercial understanding, and strong execution capabilities.

His practice is distinguished by his involvement in transactions related to strategic assets and high-impact projects, as well as his ability to advise financial institutions, corporations, and institutional clients throughout every stage of a transaction, from initial structuring through closing.

Academic and Publishing Collaborations

In addition to his professional practice, José Miguel has served as a professor at various academic institutions, including the Universidad Peruana de Ciencias Aplicadas (UPC). He is also the author and co-author of articles published in specialized journals and industry publications.
