Pérez-Llorca

Josemaría Mera

Contact
josemaria.mera@perezllorca.com
T: +51 1 610 4747
Av. José Larco 1301, Miraflores
15074 Lima

Profile

His practice focuses on legal advisory in environmental law, administrative law, and natural resources regulation. Likewise, he has experience in providing advisory during the preparation of environmental management instruments, as well as in water resources and cultural heritage matters. He advises companies in various productive sectors, with an emphasis on energy, mining, and industry, providing advisory for obtaining permits, preventive and regulatory support in audits, as well as representation and defense in administrative sanctioning proceedings in environmental matters.

Studies:

- Bachelor of Laws, Universidad de Piura (2026).

His working languages are Spanish and English.

Experience

His experience includes legal advisory in environmental law, administrative law, and natural resources regulation. Likewise, he has experience in providing advisory during the preparation of environmental management instruments, water resources, and cultural heritage. Furthermore, he advises companies with an emphasis on energy, mining, and industry for obtaining permits, support in audits, and defense in administrative sanctioning proceedings in environmental matters.

Academic and Publishing Collaborations

He has served as Vice President of the Board of Directors of the law journal Ita Ius Esto. He was also a member of the Disciplinary Committee of Universidad de Piura.

He was co-author of the first edition of the Environmental Law Journal published by the Environmental Law Team of the Pontifical Catholic University of Peru.

Professional Organisations

- International Bar Association (IBA).