Experience

Carmen has more than 15 years of experience in corporate law advice, particularly in mergers and acquisitions, private equity investments, the creation and winding up of joint ventures and corporate restructures. She advises national as well as foreign clients on high-profile mergers, acquisitions and joint ventures. Her advice covers the initial phase, which involves the signing of the confidentiality contract and the letter of intention as well as the preparation and/or realisation of due diligence; the intermediate phase, which involves the buying of assets or shares, the shareholders' agreement etc.; and additional aspects of acquisitions and investments.

In private equity transactions, Carmen has participated as a legal advisor, in minority and majority share acquisitions (MBOs, MBIs and BIMBOs) and in settled acquisitions (LBOs, LBIs and LMBOs).

Academic and Publishing Collaborations

Carmen is currently a lecturer for the following programmes:

- Master's degree in Corporate Law, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid.
- Master's degree for Access to the Legal Profession, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid.
