

Pérez-Llorca

Guillermo Meilán

Contact

gmeilan@perezllorca.com

T: +34 91 423 24 54

Paseo de la Castellana, 50

28046 Madrid

Spain

Profile

Guillermo Meilán joined Pérez-Llorca in September 2017. Prior to joining the firm, he worked for four years in the Investigations, White Collar & Fraud department at the Anglo-American firm Hogan Lovells.

Studies:

- 2015 Postgraduate degree in Compliance, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid / Universitat Pompeu Fabra (First edition of this postgraduate degree)
- 2013 Joint Honours Degree in Law and Economy, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid

He speaks Spanish, English and French.

Experience

Guillermo gives prelitigious and litigious advice to directors and Spanish and foreign multinational companies on matters of crimes against assets (fraud, mismanagement, misappropriation, fraudulent insolvency, private corruption, corporate crime, money laundering) against the Public Finances, against workers' rights, against the environment and against the Public Administration (corruption, bribery, influence peddling, embezzlement, etc.).

He gives prelitigious and litigious advice to foreign individuals and public entities on extradition procedures.

He has also taken part in internal investigations carried out in foreign multinational companies to uncover irregularities and set up compliance programmes.

Academic and publishing collaborations

Guillermo is a professor of the Master's Degree in Telecommunications Law, Data Protection, Audiovisual and Information Society at the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid.

Articles:

- “Los delitos de daños informáticos”, Anuario de Derecho Penal 2022, Tirant lo Blanch, 6 July 2022.

Professional Organisations

The Madrid Bar Association (ICAM).