Profile

Pablo González joined Pérez-Llorca in 2006, after having worked as an associate lawyer for two years of a prominent law firm in Madrid. He made partner of the Corporate practice in January 2014.

Studies:

- 2004 Master's degree in Law (LL.M) in Business Law, IE Law School
- 2003 Degree in Law and diploma in Business Administration, Universidad Pontificia de Comillas, ICADE E-1, Madrid

He speaks Spanish, English and reads and understands French.

Experience

Since the beginning of his professional career, Pablo has advised national and international clients on all types of corporate transactions, and in particular, on high profile mergers and acquisitions (M&A), formation and dissolution of joint ventures, capital markets transactions (sale and purchases of significant listed shareholdings, accelerated bookbuild offers, takeover bids, public offers for the sale and/or subscription of listed shares, issuances of securities, shareholders' agreements, etc.), corporate restructuring processes, and private equity deals.

Academic and Publishing Collaborations

From 2010 to 2016, Pablo lectured on corporate and business law matters for the Degree in Business Administration (BBA) at Instituto de Empresa (IE). He also lectures for the LL.M. at Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, regarding listed companies and their special features, and also regarding takeover bids, IPOs and public offers, for the Master's degree in Regulated Sectors at the same university. He has also lectured on legal transactions and due diligence matters for the Venture Capital Program at the Madrid Stock Exchange Studies Institute (Instituto de Estudios Bursátiles - IEB). He has also lectured for the Master's degree in Private Equity and Entrepreneurship at Fundación Rafael del Pino and Instituto de Capital Riesgo (INCARI). Likewise, he has lectured for IFAES, regarding corporate governance transparency and shareholders' agreements.

Additionally, Pablo has written several articles for specialist legal magazines. His last academic publication as co-author has been the chapter titled "The reform on competing takeover bids" in the collective book in Spanish titled "Takeover bid law: Systemathic analysis of the takeover bid regime under Spanish law", in 2010.
