Profile

Andrés joined Pérez-Llorca in 2019 to complete work experience as part of his Master's degree for Access to the Legal Profession.

Before joining, Andrés undertook an internship at the headquarters of a financial institution in London, as well as at an accredited Andalusian law firm which specialises in criminal law.

Studies:

- 2019 Master's degree in Access to the Legal Profession, Universidad Pontificia Comillas (ICADE)
- 2019 Master's degree in Business Law, Universidad Pontificia Comillas (ICADE) and Universidad de Deusto
- 2018 Joint Honours degree in Law and Business Administration – Universidad de Granada

He speaks Spanish and English.

Experience

Since joining the firm, Andrés has witnessed first-hand procedural matters of great importance, both within the framework of ordinary jurisdiction and the field of international arbitration. He has worked on both the drafting of proceedings and the design of procedural strategies.

During his first year at the Firm, Andrés gained experience in the Litigation and Arbitration, White Collar Crime and Public Law practices. He is currently working in the Litigation and Arbitration practice.
