Profile

Antonio García joined Pérez-Llorca in 2020 after working in the Madrid office of a prestigious international firm for nearly six years. Prior to this, he gained experience at a number of other respected law firms.

Studies:

- 2014 Degree in Political Science and Administration (Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia)
- 2013 Degree in Business Administration, Universidad Pontificia Comillas, ICADE, Madrid
- 2012 Degree in Law, Universidad Pontificia Comillas, ICADE, Madrid. Honours for the final exam

He speaks Spanish, English, French, German, and Italian.

Experience

From the beginning of his career, Antonio has worked for national and international clients on all types of commercial law transactions. His area of specialisation is the sale and purchase of mortgage-backed credit portfolios, having been involved in the sector's main transactions since 2014, in which he has advised banks, mutual funds and sovereign wealth funds. His advice focuses both on the sale and purchase of portfolios and their subsequent legal management or "workout". He also has extensive experience in real estate financing.

Academic and Publishing Collaborations

Antonio has published a large number of articles in the legal press (Diario La Ley, Revista de Derecho del Mercado de Valores and Revista Crítica de Derecho Inmobiliario). In July 2020, he was awarded second place for the RCDI's 9th Magazine Award. He is co-author and coordinator of a "Manual on Debt Purchase in Spain", published by Thomson Reuters Aranzadi.

Professional organisations

The Madrid Bar Association (ICAM).
