Experience

Yolanda has 27 years of experience working in the Madrid office of a reputable international firm. She specialises in all aspects of capital markets and represents issuers and placement banks in cross-border transactions on both the fixed income and equity markets, including bond issuance and commercial paper programmes, regulatory capital, covered bonds, IPOs, secondary offerings and block trades.

Her in-depth knowledge of the market, coupled with her technical strength, has enabled her to build long-lasting relationships of trust with her clients, which include financial institutions as well as multinationals and large Spanish companies. Azanza has a strong international profile and has repeatedly been involved in multi-jurisdictional transactions.

Academic and publishing collaborations

Yolanda has authored numerous publications, including the following:

- The Capital Markets Union: a path towards a greater Union, published in Anuario del Euro 2017, IEAF/FEF & Fundación ICO (February 2018).
- Financiación mediante emisión de deuda o mediante préstamo, published in Cuadernos de Derecho para Ingenieros, Wolters Kluwer - La Ley and Iberdrola.
- Emisión de obligaciones en el extranjero por una sociedad española, by Yolanda Azanza,
