Profile

In June 2014, Javier joined Pérez-Llorca's Litigation and Arbitration department. He was made partner in January 2020.

Javier García Marrero holds a law degree from Universidad de La Laguna, which he attended from 1989 to 1994. He received a graduation award for Special Distinction (Premio extraordinario de Fin de Carrera). He became a Court Clerk (Secretario Judicial) in 1997.

In 1999, he became a judge after passing the regular state examination, serving at the mixed courts of Arona (Tenerife) and Quart de Poblet (Valencia), as well as at the court of first instance of Almería and the labour court of Santa Cruz de Tenerife. He is a specialist judge in commercial law matters (class salutatorian), and has been the sitting judge at the Commercial Court no. 5 in Madrid since November 2007.

Experience

He has advised clients on complex insolvency proceedings, especially regarding settlements, defence against clawback options and the sale of production units and important assets in the context of insolvency proceedings.
